

SUMMER DESIGN CAMP

2021_SDC

Held Virtually on Weekdays July 12th - 23rd, 2021

University of Tennessee Knoxville

College of Architecture + Design

WHY:

- Learn how to communicate information and ideas using foundational design principles including composition, color, type, pattern, form and space
- Develop skills in 2D and 3D analog and digital representation techniques
- Experience topics including design theory, history, technology, & practice
- Meet UTK faculty, students, & alumni and get a glimpse of design education at UTK.

WHEN/WHERE:

2021 Summer Design Camp (2021_SDC) will be held virtually for ten days over the course of two weeks: July 12 - 16th and July 19 - 23th. Students will learn design fundamentals, practice analog and digital skills, develop design projects, and participate in design critiques and group discussions. The program will conclude with a virtual exhibition event in a digital environment modeled on UTK's Art + Architecture gallery space.

WHO:

High school students and incoming college freshmen are welcome. Summer Design Camp will be led by UTK faculty and a team of UTK student teaching assistants who will provide one-to-one feedback and support to students every day.

WHAT:

A 2021_SDC supply kit will be mailed to you before the camp's first meeting, including all physical supplies needed for camp projects and UTK swag! We will use free downloadable trial software for digital exercises.

All meetings held virtually via Zoom, in EST time zone.

10am - 12 PM Morning Lecture and Project Instruction

12pm - 1pm Lunch Break

1pm - 3pm Studio Group Working Session with teaching assistants

3pm - Independent Work Time (you are encouraged to spend afternoons developing your projects!)

HOW MUCH:

$475
